Education

Simon Fraser University
Bsc Interactive Arts & Technology
2020 - present

I am in the 3rd year of my studies at the school of interactive arts and technology, with a dual concentration on design and information systems, at Simon Fraser University.

National University of Singapore
Exchange semester
2023

At the start of 2023 I completed an exchange semester at the National University of Singapore. Having the opportunity to study at one of the best universities in Asia and exploring a new culture was an amazing experience that made me a more worldly student.
